

How to Ride City of El Monte Transit

El Monte Transit operates ultra-low floor ADA compliant transit buses on five (5) fixed-routes that provide transportation for residents to major public agencies, work-sites, shopping areas, recreation facilities, and most schools within the city.

All buses depart from the El Monte Transit Station located at 3679 Center Avenue every 40 minutes.

All riders are subject to the City's Code of Conduct on Local Transit Policy.

Plan your trip

Use the route map and schedule to find a trip that will meet your needs. Remember that your stop might be between schedule points.

Catch the bus

Wait at a schedule point, or wave down the driver at the designated bus stop along the route.

Pay your fare

Pay as you board the bus by putting exact cash, change, or tokens in the farebox (drivers do not make change) or by showing the driver your City of El Monte Dial-A-Ride ("DAR") card or Access Services card.

Signal your stop

Pull the stop request cord about a block before your stop to signal the driver that you want to get off the bus.

Please call (626) 580 - 2217 for program information in alternative formats such as large print, braille and verbal assistance.
